“ I met Ramsey back in 2014 when he took me on our first date to Teriyaki Don in his old jeep. Afterwards we drove up and down black stone listening to music and talking about our dream cars . I remember when he got his apartment on peach and made me a hash brown casserole! he was so proud. Man how much memories we had...He was such a beautiful soul and joy to be around! My heart aches at the fact that I've barley found out about your passing 4yrs later and I just want you to know I miss you dearly, you would always have a place in my heart and I'll never forget that smile of yours. My deepest condolences to his mother and his family and May god watch over you

“ Ramsey had such a kind heart! Just one instance that I remember was when my boys were younger and didn't have a skateboard. After seeing Big Cuz Ramsey on one, they just HAD to have one so Cuz Ramsey gave them one of his!!! However, he first gave them a safety lesson and made them promise that they would wear helmets and not roll into the street! He was always so good to everyone and will be missed very much!
