

Randy Daniel Villalobos Jr.

December 16, 1987 - January 22, 2021

Randy was born and raised in Fresno, California. He played football all four years at Sunnyside High School and graduated in 2006. Randy became a father his senior year of high school, which led him to become the man he grew to be. He loved his son greatly and always provided everything his son needed. After high school, Randy attended Fresno City College and earned his AA degree in 2012. In June of 2013, Randy began his career as a Correctional Officer for Fresno County. Randy was a die-hard Cowboys fan and always had a big smile on his face.

Randy, your loud laughs and jokes will be greatly missed.

Randy is preceded in death by his two sisters, Clarissa and Cassandra Villalobos and by his grandfather, Benny Guerrero.

Randy is survived by his parents, Randy and Carol Villalobos; his son, Randy Villalobos III; his grandmother, Carmen Guerrero; his brother, Frank; his sister, Cynthia; his niece, Mia; his fiancée, Sydney; and his stepdaughter, Lilith. Randy will also be remembered by many uncles, relatives, and his extended correctional family.

Visitation will be held at Chapel of the Light Funeral Home on Thursday, February 4, 2021 from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. A rosary will be recited at 7:00
