

Raoul Javier "Charro" Hernandez

May 5, 1978 - January 10, 2022

Raoul "Charro" Javier Hernandez was born on May 5, 1978 and passed away on January 10, 2022. He was born to Carmenlita Hernandez in Fresno, California where he resided all his life.

Raoul was a genius throughout his early childhood with the help of his mother's care and guidance. He attended school for the gifted children and was smart beyond his years. He graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1996. Attended Fresno City College where he took classes in Social Work to be an advocate for children and the Homeless. While attending City College he was offered a fully paid scholarship to pursue his Career at Fresno State University where he graduated with honors and was asked to sing the National Anthem for his graduating Latino class of 2012.

All while pursuing his education, Raoul found the love of music at a very young age. One day he just picked up a guitar and started to play and sing with no music or voice lessons, just self-taught. He joined several Mariachi groups throughout his career and his talent and love grew even stronger. Raoul is survived by his mother, Carmenlita, an enormous family which consist of numerous Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and many, many friends.
