“ Becky has been a sweet, wonderful friend of our family for years. She always expressed caring and love toward all of us. When something went wrong, she came over with a big dish of beef and cheese enchiladas which was a hit and helped us feel better about things. That's how she was: caring and thoughtful. We will all miss her terribly. I like to imagine that she is resting in peace along with her husband, Jeff, who left her too soon and who she loved so much. My love goes out to her sons, Cody and Logan.

“ I worked directly with Becky several years ago while she was Office Assistant at Wawona Middle School. She was a cheerful, friendly person and was very competent in her job. She always wanted to be an Office Manager and was able to achieve her goal at King Elementary. I know her family deeply misses her and so will the staff at King. RIP sweet Becky!

“ I am so saddened to hear of Rebecca's passing. Rebecca was a joy to work with. I will miss talking with Rebecca about work, her dogs and her "kerfuffels." My condolences to the family. May she rest in peace.
