“ You will be truly missed my granddaughter I know GOD has his plan for you and your daughters and we don't understand it but he will be with us during this time of sorrow and know that your babies will be taken care of by lots of family we all don't know the things you was going through but GOD did and that is why your are with him no more worries and no more pain my sweet young lady. You will always be close to my heart and I will see you and your mom some day and your sister and brother are heart broken as well but GOD will help us through this time RIH Reyna.
