

Reynaldo F. Aguilar

June 25, 1967 - August 6, 2018

My brother Reynaldo Flores Aguilar was born on June 25, 1967. He passed away on August 6, 2018. He is preceded in death by our mother Rosa Aguilar. He is survived by our father Reynaldo Aguilar, myself, his sister Maria Briceno, brother Bernabe Aguilar, Nephew Steven Briceno and Niece Vanessa Briceno.

Rey attended St. Helen's Catholic School from Kindergarten through 8th grade. He played little league baseball where he received the rookie of the year award. He also played pop warner football. In his high school days, he played in a rock band with his friends. In the mid 90's, he met Rachel. Rey and Rachel lived together.

He was the Tio my kids grew up with and went to for advice. He enjoyed spoiling his Great Niece Noelia and Great Nephew Aiden by buying them ice cream and walking them to the store for treats. Rey loved collecting antiques. Rey was my right hand by assisting me with the care of our father until he became ill. He became ill this last October and was bed ridden. He was cared for by Barney. My dear brother is resting along side Mom. In the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ.
