Rhonda was born on December 11, 1945 in Madera, CA to Robert and Betty Long. Her father was in the Air Force, so she lived in numerous locations throughout the U.S., including New Hampshire; Colorado; Alaska; and Alabama.

In 1971, her daughter Karen was born in Alabama. In 1978, she and Karen moved to the Central Valley to live close to her parents in Fresno, CA. She and Luke enjoyed watching TV shows and movies together, as well as playing games. She attended his sports and school events as often as she could and loved watching him compete. Her main hobby was spending time with her grandson Luke, and she also enjoyed periodic trips to Disneyland, the Central Coast, and Yosemite. An avid TV watcher, she liked watching figure skating, college football, and numerous other shows that she enjoyed sharing with Karen and Luke.

The family would like to thank the staff at Ardent Hospice and The Harvest at Fowler for providing her with excellent care in her final months.
