

Richard Raymond Curll

January 2, 1943 - March 16, 2025

Richard Raymond Curll passed away peacefully at his home in Fresno, California, on March 16th, 2025 at the age of 82 surrounded by his loving family.

Rich was born in Portland, Oregon on January 2nd, 1943. He was raised in Denver, Colorado and spent some time in Stockton, California, before settling in Fresno where he spent the remainder of his life.

He's survived by his loving wife, Mary; his children Debbie, Sharon and Tom; his pride and joy grandkids: Bonnie, Ian, Kasey, Cameron, Duncan, Hannah and Bailey; his loving and amazing great-grand kids, Mia, Ivy, Lily, Caden, Louella and soon-to-be twins Max and Miles.

Rich had over 40 years in the construction industry that began in the home improvement department of Sears. He went on to start his own general contracting business, which became his lasting legacy, providing quality work to this day.

Outside of work, Rich had a love for travel. He and his wife Mary enjoyed many trips overseas and cross country with their large group of friends. Rich also loved the outdoors. Whether he was finishing hunting or even golfing, he had a deep appreciation of sport and nature.

Rich was a reliable man that could be counted on to step in and save the day. His practicality and ability to problem solve made a lasting impact on many who knew him. He will be remembered for this iron will, love for his wife and those strong pats on the back. He touched the lifes of many and forever will be remember with pride and joy. Until we see you again we love you and your legacy will live on.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Rich’s passing. We know it’s been a challenge the past few years. And we’re sorry to have missed the service, as we were out of town.

A favorite memory—many years ago we were on a Hawaii trip with Rich and Mary and everybody stayed in some condos at Kahana Beach. What a laugh everyone had upon discovering the construction czar couldn’t figure out how to set up the legs on the Murphy bed and he and Mary kept sliding out of bed all night.

God bless.
