

Richard Andrew Molina Jr

December 4, 1983 - May 7, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Richard Andrew Molina Jr

September 15, 2022 at 09:34 PM

“ Rick, you were not only my older cousin but you were my friend. We grew up together. Our Sundays watching football as a family I will always cherish. It's taken me a long time to deal with this. Words can't express what you meant to me. Easter, hanging out, I looked up to you and always will. Miss you Rick, I'll never forget that laugh, mouth full of food.

Josh Rodriguez - December 13, 2020 at 01:04 AM

“ Ricky was such a monumental part of my life. He was intellectually gifted, musically talented and wise beyond his years. Most of who I am today is because of what he and his family thought me. I am eternally grateful for them.

He was able to fill a void when I had no one and he was there when I needed him the most. Ricky was my family, he was my home, he was my safe place because he was always there. He was an exceptional friend, brother, son and most of all father. He will be missed. He has and always will hold a very special place in my heart.

Crystal Flores - May 30, 2020 at 12:27 PM

“ My love, Richard was an amazing person. He loved his kids, his family, his girlfriend and life in general. He had a heart of gold with a matching smirk smile. So full of knowledge, patience and he was extremely talented playing the guitar and the tuba. He is forever loved and missed by all who knew him. I love you for always bebe , till we meet again. .,

---

Perla Campos - May 25, 2020 at 03:45 PM