“ To Our brother, and uncle, may you rest in peace . We may not be there in body to pay respect but we are with you in spirit. I'll never forget your sense of humor, a tuffy on the outside but a softy on the inside. You will be deeply missed! We love you! XO

To Sister/Auntie Louisa and family, we in New Mexico are praying for all of you! Cherish the fond memories, I'm sure you have a lot! May the Lord Bless each of you!

“ My most sincere condolences to the Salinas family. He was a wonderful man. He and my mom(Ramona) shared many good memories of their younger years every time she would visit him and his wife. May he rest in peace along with all of our loved ones in heaven. God bless Luisa and the rest of the Salinas family.

“ I had the pleasure to have met Richard Salinas as a little girl, when he worked with my dad in the ranch. He was a very friendly and humble man. Our families became close and bonded up until we all grew up and moved out of town. He will be missed dearly by a lot of people. Our condolences for Luisa and their children and families. May he RIP

“ It was a great honor to know this man for the last 20 years of my life. He treated me like one of his own and I'm very fortunate to be married to one of his grand kids and to be part of his lovely family too. Richard, I'll always carry u in my heart. Mi querido viejo.
