

Robert Alan Cook

October 30, 1950 - October 8, 2014

Robert Alan Cook was born in Fresno, California 10/30/1950 and passed away in Fresno on 10/8/2014. Robert was the son of Fletcher and Lorraine Cook of Fresno. He graduated from Fresno High School in 1970.

Robert was inducted in the Army in 1971 and proudly served our country during the Vietnam War. He was a Sheet Metal and manufacturing worker for 40 years. Robert was an artist, historian, and outdoors-man. He loved to draw and create art from wood and other mediums. He left us a number of pieces to remember him by. Robert loved California and the history of the state. He could tell any number of stories about Native American tribes or local folklore for many places through-out California. His favorite pass time was camping. His home served as a place to regroup and plan his next camping trip. His favorite places were Yosemite, Pine Flat, Mono Hot Springs, and the Santa Cruz Mountains. Robert was also our family historian tracing the Cook family back to the 1700's.

Robert was proceeded in death by both parents. He is survived by his sisters Beatrice Cook and Debbie Cook-Henry, brother William Cook, brother-in-law Brad Henry, nephew Dylan Henry, and niece Paige Henry.
