“ My most memorable memories of my uncle Robert Cota was the many times we visit him at his grocery store in Las Deltas with my mother Blanche Cota Leyva , my sister Sylvia Reyes and no matter how busy he was he took time out to be with us. We talk about our faith in Jesus , our past and his favorite. Politics. I will forever cherish the times I had we him , Not only did I lose an uncle I lost a friend, who gave me personnel advice when I needed it. His last words to me were " I love you" forever will stay in my heart. Rest in peace.
