“ Well Rob its almost a year since I said my last goodbye . I made it through all the first without you, new years, valentines, my birthday, your bithday, Easter, memorial day, fathers day, all the kids birthdays, fourth of July, Emi graduating, halloween, thanksgiving, and christmas, and the one year annivarsary of your passing . It was the hardest year in my life . As my life goes on I will carry you in my heart and I will keep your memory alive with the stories I will tell our grandchildren Miss and love you dearly .

“ I will always love and miss you. Rob you and your family have always been good to me and my family. Through all my hard times you were there for me like a brother does. I remember when you took me camping to here the wind blow. I slept the whole time lol and it rained the whole time! You taught me not only how to be a good worker but how to be a better man and I'm so blessed to know you! I remember fight night at your home and swimming in the pool in the back yard lol! I pray in Jesus Christ name that he is with you and your family during this hard time! love you brother and will always remember you. Hug my brother Frankie for me. Good bye Rob Hernandez

“ Working with Rob for 14 years and being friends for 24, he taught me more about work ethics, being a better man, friend and father than I am able to put into words. He will be remembered, revered and honored in my household early and often. In loving memory of you always my friend.

“ Dear grandpa from all the times we sat in the front yard and played baseball from all the times we went to baskin robins and went to the airport and watched all the airplanes land and helicopters land from all the time we watched baseball games and basketball games from all the times we went to the park but nothing will ever combare to sitting with you and talking about life. Grandpa you will always be my hero I will always be your little girl.

Love scrubby.

“ The only word to describe Uncle Rob, is indescribable. He was a man of many words, with words that were impactful; words that resonate with me daily. His contagious smile, paired with his sheer love for family, forged a bond that will never be forgotten. The warmth of his heart is one that is unparalleled. His giving nature is there for generations to come. He taught me how to fish, and also that when nothing is biting, to be patient and the right one will come along. Life lessons are his legacy, and that's his way of making the world a better place. I love you, Rob Dog. Go Vikings!

“ Going to miss you my dear friend. Your voice, wonderful smile and the best hospitality. So thankful for the conversations and our friendship. Thank you for the Sacramento tours, for introducing me to oysters grilled on the half shell, the fishing trips, having me arrested in Sac 🦖, the river treasure hunts, lunch at the Tugboat, flea market walks, Asian festival events and many other things that just escape my heart. Things are going to be different for many of us. I'm going to miss you Rob ☐❤️

“ *Dear Grandpa, Words feel so inadequate at this time, they can never show just how much I love and look up to you. I know you are no longer here but I feel you around it may be you watching over me or just me feeling your love. I always will cherish every single moment that I had with you because I know you were fighting just to see me grow in to the young woman I have become and I always will be proud that you fought to hard and grateful that you were my grandpa and hero.

“ I worked with Robert on and off in the home improvement industry. He was a really decent guy and had a kind heart that came through in the way he talked to customers. I wish there were more people like Robert.
