“ I dont want to make this long. I met Robert about 2 years ago. Something told me to look for my dads brothers, so they can be together. Delores was a big help in making the reunion happen. Both my dad, Robert and Rudy (the 3 R's) met. My dad hadn't seen Robert in ages and never met Rudy. The meet up was so beautiful, my dad really enjoyed it. Robert Ochoa seemed like a cool guy, very humble, reminded me of a bad ass biker (in a good sense). I dont know if he liked bikes, but I could see him as a rider. Myself and my father will not forget that day. The pics were the last we seen eachother at Starbucks and other is all 3 brothers and there Father. I know deep inside what Revelation 21:4 says Jehovah will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever." This is a hard time for the Ochua family, but I believe we will see Robert again, but he will be perfect. Until than I want to remember the good man I met at Starbucks. We love you Robert, may you Rip.
