

Romana Solis

February 27, 1933 - October 4, 2021

Romana Solis was born on February 27th, 1933 in Staples, Texas to Juanita Sanchez and Agapito Gutierrez. She was one of 7 siblings, all who preceded her in death.

Romana left to join her late husband Jesse Solis and her two adult sons Joseph and Armando and infant son Rueben in Heaven on October 4th, 2021. She is survived by her children Jesse Solis, Dora Randolph, Margaret Herrera, Lupe Solis, Linda Rodriguez, Juanita Sandoval and Sylvia Guerrero, along with 16 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great grandchildren.

Romana enjoyed her family very much and had a spirit of hospitality. You would never leave her home without having a warm meal and she was very attentive to her families needs. Some of her hobbies were sewing, crocheting doilies, canning fruit enjoyed, families gathering at her home. She retired from Horizon Health Center after 20 years of working there.

She was a very loving and compassionate mother who will be missed by all her family!

“ Although you raised 9 children, you still made time for me. Life wasn't always perfect but it was perfect when I was with you. Times weren't always easy, but you made them very memorable. I would have never known a mother's love if it wasn't for you. Words could not explain the gratitude I have for raising me. Thank you grandma, you'll be missed but never forgotten. Luv you Ma...
