“ Dad, I miss your voice and think about your smile everyday. I wanted to say again thank you for being the best father a kid could ask for, and for giving me so many treasured memories and conversation's with you. Just know now you will always be on our hearts as well as in our thoughts and prayers. I also want you to know I have always loved you and always will. May you rest in peace ... your proud son, Albert John Neils
