

Ronald Wayne Stark

October 18, 1967 - May 13, 2014

Ronald Wayne Stark was 46 years of age when called home to God's kingdom on May 13, 2014. Ronald was born in Fresno California October 18, 1967. He was a resident of North Las Vegas, Nevada.

Ron was in North Carolina at the time of his passing as he was traveling for work. Ron was a Journeyman Plumber and proud member of Plumbers Local 16 of Omaha Nebraska. Most of the beautiful things in life are all too short lived. Fireworks, sunsets and flowers all burst on to scene and take our breath away by their beauty and then they leave just as quickly. Too few people are special people in that way . Their beautiful spirits and the love they put out, is usually only experienced by a lucky few. Ronald Stark had a generous and loving spirit that always resonated lighting throughout any room he was in.

Ronald is survived by his mother and father, Harlene and Michael Lee of North Las Vegas NV, his younger brother Kenneth Shuey and his family of Arlington, Texas, his loving grandparents, and his loving aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Ron's favorite hobbies were Computers, Traveling, Camping, and giving to others. To best describe Ronald's feelings and attitude about a man's life. Here is a short quote of what Ronald wrote at the age of Ten years old . It was named The Glow Of Happiness. "When you have once seen the glow of happiness on the face of a beloved person, you know that a man can have no other vocation than to awaken that light on the faces surrounding him.” He will be dearly missed by all his family and loved one’s.
