“ I will never forget the talks we shared about our families. You were always so proud of your children and always excited to see them play in the marching bands. You loved music very much. There was excitement and sparkle in your eyes when you talked about your family, as they were everything to you and you to them. You were always smiling at work and if you had a bad day, no one would know it. You were always a friend first. You will be missed, no longer in our presence but will live on in our memories until we meet again.

“ I used to work with Rosemary many years ago. She was always such a nice and friendly co-worker. She always had a smile on her face, she never had a bad day. I had recently worked with her sister Margie and we still keep in touch. Sending the family my prayers and may the many memories of Rosemary gives you comfort. God Bless.
