

Ruben Aurelio Carrillo

November 12, 1944 - January 29, 2025

Ruben Aurelio Carrillo, 80 yrs old, of Kerman, California passed away Wednesday January 29, 2025. Ruben was born in Mendota California to Guadalupe and Aurelio Carrillo on November 12, 1944. Ruben grew up between Mendota and Calexico California. He attended Calexico High School where he excelled in sports, football and baseball.

Ruben met his wife Adeline Estrada in the early 1960's and soon settled down in Kerman where they raised their 5 beautiful daughters, Eileen, Shirley, Nanci, Denise and Melissa.

His love for baseball followed him into his adult years where he played in several leagues and tournaments in California. He was a star pitcher striking out guys half his age. Ruben was a lifelong Dodgers fan and cheered on the Los Angeles Lakers and was part of the Raider Nation.

When Ruben wasn't playing ball or cheering on his favorite teams, he was cruising to oldies in his classic cars or watching westerns on television. Ruben was also a truck driver for over 50 years.

Family was a big deal to Ruben. He loved spending time with his girls and all his grandchildren, Ruben, Adeline, Tony, Serena, Vivi, Heather, Danielle, Alisha, Christopher, Evelia and Sierra. Ruben also had 11 great grandchildren Madeline, Ruben, Mark, Mason, Meagan, Elmer, Mackenzie, Maddox, Christopher Jr., Cobe and Adriel he enjoyed every minute of their company.

Ruben is preceded in death by his parents Guadalupe and Aurelio Carrillo, wife Adeline Carrillo, daughter Nanci Carrillo and several brothers and sisters.

Ruben leaves behind numerous family and friends to cherish his memory. Our Dad/Tata will be deeply missed and forever remembered. Ruben's legacy lives on through his family and all the wisdom and stories he shared throughout the years. A storyteller and mentor with a big heart. We ask you to please keep Ruben's family in your prayers as they go through this difficult time.

Services will be held at Chapel of the Light 1620 W. Belmont Ave Fresno, Ca 93728.
