“ My ❤️ broke when I heard the words of your passing. I will miss you saying "Did you know".....and letting me know the latest from the newspaper.Also his soft spoken voice. Being a Sandoval , my Dad & uncles have soft spoken voices too. Therefore believe we are related somehow. I have grown to Love you & Blessed to call you & consider you My Family. I love you, & will see you on the other side. R I P Rudy All My 💖 Oly

“ I will miss my phone conversations with cousin Rudy. Our conversations began on a serious note but eventually would turn into pendejadas. We would try to top each other's jokes. Never a dull moment. Hope you're cracking jokes in Heaven Rudy! I love you! Your cousin Lola.

“ Rudy was my compadre, one memory that comes to mind of my compadre was when we went hiking and went up the wrong trail. After we were half way up the trail we realized we were on the mule trail and not the human trail. Another memory that I have of him is how talented he was when it came to restoring furniture. I watched him remove a burn spot on a walnut dining room table. He took about one hour working on this one spot but was so detailed on the finish that when the owner of the table came back she asked him where the spot was! We both looked at each other and said 'Orale'.

Another time we were setting up Rebecca's Dough-boy pool. We took everything out of the box and pulled the instructions out. Rudy showed me how easy it was to put the pool up from the picture he showed me. The picture was a lady in a bikini with a cold drink in one hand and a rake in the other. Since it was a hot day, we started putting the pool up and decided to have a cold one. An hour later, we realized that picture of the girl on the instructions was not true. We hired my friend with a backhoe to dig the hole for the pool and at that time we decided it was time to start having quarts of Bud Light. My comadre Dora came outside when she noticed the backhoe in the yard and asked us "What are you guys doing?" Rudy turned around and told Dora "We are going to put this pool in no matter what!" and we did. After we finished putting in the pool we sat down and celebrated!

Our sincere condolences go out to my comadre Dora and their daughters along with their grandchildren. You will be greatly missed compadre. From your compadre Big Dave Renovato and his wife Linda
