“ sam was one of my best friends while i served in the air force and even aftwerwards. we would call a lot on discord, rocky included, and play a lot of video games together. while we were both serving active duty military, we worked out almost every day after work. i was always pushing sam in the gym and to see someone who spends so much time on video games, step into the gym, it was both funny and motivating. we always had a great time and shared so many great laughs. miss you every single day sam love,
