although we may not have thought she was the best mom growing up, she was still OUR mom. One of a kind and unique. She was always here for us when we needed something. She may have growled like a hungry grizzly bear at us but she never said no. I just miss everything about her. I never thought we would have faced this day this soon, but its here and im glad I have you to grieve with. Thank you for all the support and being here for me. Its a lonely time, but without you id be totally empty... now all we can do is carry on mommas memories and keep em alive with us and the kids.. especially her friend chicken stealing days...lol... or how she was mad at you and I was treated like a queen for a day..hahaha.. or when she was mad at me and you were king.... I just miss her. Love you and never give up because I sure moms still with us, we just cant see her.....

She was such a nice person to all of us in the family. She will be deeply missed. Jean was always such a thoughtful kind person. My heart goes out to you all. God Bless You All and now she is not suffering anymore. Cousin Sally Franklin Rodriguez

*Aww. Thats sweet of you sally. Im so glad you had a chance to come visit with her last month. You really brightened up her spirits that night when you showed up with Maggie... you three were reminiscing about everything. Thank you for everything.
