“ Sebastian had this contagious smile and laughter. His spirit was genuine and true. He was my friend and my brother in Christ. I thought and prayed about him only to find him gone. I'm sorry for your lost family. I'm sorry I didnt try harder to remain in contact. We love you Sebastian. See you in heaven bro

“ I'll never forget his Imagination and his best friends Michael and Dude. They went everywhere he went and even had to be buckled into the car. I pray that he has met up with his friends and are running and playing like they did when he was young.

“ I remember the day you were born, I was so excited to be an aunt (nene) I was only 8yrs old but I was so proud to wear my locket to school with your little picture on it. We grew up together, you were more like a little brother who I loved and just wanted the best for....you're at peace now pop no more struggling or suffering, will meet again I'm sure, Until then tell dude and Michael to take good care of you, love you xoxox
