

Severina Cortez Laxamana

November 5, 1944 - January 31, 2024

Severina Laxamana, known as "Viring" aged 79, passed away on January 31, 2024, in Mountain View, California. She was born on November 5, 1944, in Caduang Tete, Macabebe, Pampanga. Severina is survived by her children Perry Laxamana (wife Melba) & Rhia Laxamana Tayag (husband Arnold) along with her grandchildren Jasmine Laxamana, Jonathan Laxamana, Julian Laxamana , Patrick Tayag, Matt Tayag & her great granddaughter Serene Luna Tayag, along with her 2 sisters & 1 brother & many other cousins, nieces, and nephews abroad. She will truly be missed by all who knows her, as she treated each and every person she came into contact with as her own. Severina did not finish high school, but through running her small business, a "sari-sari store", she was able to raise her two kids in the Philippines on her own. In 2002, she moved to the U.S. to help her son Perry raise his child. Severina was caring and hospitable to everyone: whether it be through the love that she put in her food, sharing her pride and joy through her houseplants, or the stories she'd tell to make everyone feel welcome. With a beautiful and colorful spirit, she never failed to make people laugh, for it was through her infectious humor that people came close to her. She was known to always act with integrity above all else, yet reminded us not to take life too seriously, no matter what challenges come our way. She was an embodiment of community, care, and was a ray of sunshine to all until her very last breath.
