“ Man, Stone, I don't even know where to start but I'll take it back to when we were teenagers ditching acting like fools to becoming adults and eventually getting together... I cherish all the things you taught me but the most important was you telling me I'll always be ok no matter what! You instilled that in my head that I could never forget it! I got to spend a lot of time w you the last couple years. EVERY weekend we'd sit across from one another talking about everything you could think of... our "traveling plans" buncha laughs, tears, smiles, even me giving you that look grrrrrr lol... you'd pick my brain n I loved it! You'd tell me all kinds of stories and I thought they were so intriguing, you'd laugh at me because I'd sit there listening to you all stuck and memorized. You'd say you like that stuff huh? I'd say yup! You'd crack up at me... tell me I'm crazy! I learned so much from you but I'd still slip up n show my hot headedness n you'd be right there to help me get back to where I needed to be. You were my picker upper. I depended on you and you never let me down, ever! We had a life that we had all planned out... got to live a lil bit of it. I'm sorry I didn't give it more. But we didn't let that tarnish the love we had for each other. We'd always remain friends regardless. Your heart was unmatched n that will be missed the most. I will continue to carry on your caring heart towards the elders and the kiddos that you deeply adored. And if I forget to open the door for the elderly close the door on me 😳. So many emotions I have but I know you'd tell me stop crying n I'll be ok. So till we get to RD again I will love you for always n miss you so much! Your forever Bunz. SNBSF!

“ There are too many memories to express only one. The life of Shane Stone was a life that made everyone else want to live. He loved kids and would have been an amazing father one day. He was intelligent, fun, loving, talented, strong yet gentle. I have never known anyone like him and I know there will never be another like him. His presence on this earth made a world of change for anyone he came in contact with. It almost as if a piece of him remained every time he left a room. We were all drawn to his spirit one way or another. This earth will never be the same. Now his spirit is flying up above us all protecting us, loving us, very quietly whispering to us the things he used to always tell us each personally. I can hear him now. Our lives are forever changed as we know it.
