Sheila Mary Ryder was born on September 12, 1942 in Santa Barbara, California to Christian Ryder and Anne (Finn) Ryder. Sheila departed this life suddenly on August 2, 2017 after complications suffered from an automobile accident.

She was currently the Religious Education Coordinator for the Shrine of St. Therese Catholic Church. “ Sheila always had a great smile and good words to match. She was a dedicated teacher and a woman of faith. When I anointed her a month ago she was very positive about life and her journey to the Lord. May she rest in the peace of Christ.
