“ I have a lot of memories of Steve. Stephen Piskor! As Danielle would say his name with authority when she would be messing with him lol. He was a good, loving person. Everyone knows he put up with a LOT taking care of Danielle growing up. So we know he was a patient man also. 😊 Always happiest with a beer in his hand and a game on the tv in front of him. ❤️

I spent many, many years as I hope, part of their family. He tried to make sure she never wanted for anything, and I know she drove him crazy. But he loved her with all his heart, and I know that helped him thrive. And when Gabriel came, I know his love doubled. He loved to joke around, and I loved his deep low laugh. I would drive up to Visalia and spend countless weekends with them. Of course Danielle would be dragging me out to go drinking, or dancing or something. Don't get me wrong, we had our fun, but I know he always worried about her. I don't think I ever told her this, but one night he sat me down and said, "You take care of her. Keep her outta trouble." It has always been a very cherished moment for me.

I'm sad that I wasn't able to see him in the past years, or be there for my friend. I know he will always be watching over her and the family.

Rest In Peace Stevie.
