

Tirso Jimenez Jr.

May 23, 1959 - February 11, 2025

Tirso Jimenez Jr., 65, passed away on February 11, 2025, in Fresno, California. Born on May 23, 1959 to Barbara and Tirso Jimenez, he lived a life marked by generosity, compassion, and unwavering faith.

In December of 1977, Tirso married Sandra Jimenez, and together they built a family grounded in love and devotion. At the age of 17, he proudly joined and served in the military, demonstrating dedication and courage. After retiring from the service, Tirso continued his hard-working spirit in the construction industry.

Tirso had a remarkable talent for working with his hands. He was known for his skill with cars—there wasn't a vehicle he couldn't fix. Tirso was the person family and friends turned to when something needed repairing. He also loved spending time outdoors, especially fishing, where he found peace and joy in the simple moments by the water.

He will be remembered most for his kind heart and selfless nature. He was the type of man who would give the shirt off his back to anyone in need. His generosity knew no bounds, and his compassion touched the lives of many. His faith guided him throughout his life, and his memory will continue to inspire those who knew him.

He is survived by his two children, Tirso Jimenez III and Emma Abina; his siblings Gabriel, Daniel, Andy, Beatrice, and Magdalena; his partner, Elena; his beloved grandchildren Jesse, Robert Jr., Celine, Sanice, Ivan, Tirso IV, Titus, Mateo, and Natalia; and his great-grandchildren, Elijah, Joesiah, Elanice, Ivan, and Cyrus. He also leaves behind his two cherished dogs, Chuy and Chiquita. Tirso was preceded in death by his parents, Barbara and Tirso Jimenez.

A Celebration of Faith will be held on Friday, March 7, at 11:30 a.m. at the Chapel of Light in Fresno, CA, followed by a reception at the Nielsen Conference Center at 2:00 p.m.

“Well done, good and faithful servant.”
