

Tressie Glenn AKA Tressie Glin

June 26, 1950 - February 10, 2024

Tressie Mae Glin (Morgan) was born June 26, 1950 in Blytheville, Arkansas. The daughter of late Delois (Dee) Wright and Vera Glenn. She received her education in Easton, Kansas City, Missouri. In 1970 she relocated to Fresno, Ca., where she worked in the healthcare and customer service field to provide for her family. Later, in 1972, Tressie married Jesse Morgan. She was a mother of seven children.

Tressie enjoyed crocheting, puzzles, and games on her phone. However, she will be remembered for her friendliness, willingness to give (help), the love of spending time with family and let's not forget the beads of sweat dripping from her face, her kango hats and her famous words, "I'm not sleep."

She leaves to cherish her memories; one brother John Glenn of Fresno, California; seven sisters Mary and David Jackson from Kansas City, Missouri; Glory Riggs of Flint, Missouri; Shirley and Harvey Gilliam of Flat, Missouri; Cleo Griffis of Flint, Missouri; Alice Owens of Glendale, Arizona; Lina Charles of Peoria, Arizona; four sons Semion Glin of Kansas City, Missouri; Robert Smith III of Fresno, California; Marvin Hempstead of Fresno, California; Jesse Jr. and Rosemary Morgan of Fresno California; and four daughters Meshelle and Jim Jones of Fresno, California; Sirrette and Thomas Myers of Fresno, California; Tressie Mae Morgan of Fresno, California, stepdaughter Emerald Morgan; 31 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren and a host of dearly loved
