“ I remember her emotional strength of how she started her life over for herself and her kids. She was very determined not to allow anyone or anything bring her down. I remember her love for life, her love of dancing, her respectfulness, her resourcefulness, but most of all beautiful smile when she saw someone from her family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all, Marylou, Joaquin, Angelica, Roberto Jr and Lucy.

Nothing I can say will take away your pain at the loss of your sister. One of my oldest memories is seeing her dance with your dad when she was the same age as my little granddaughter. She enjoying dancing throughout her life and is dancing with your dad right now.
