

Vivian Gay Windmiller

May 26, 1950 - June 28, 2022

Vivian "Gay" Windmiller (DeMasters) was born in North Fork, CA, where she worked on the cattle ranch during her younger years. As an athlete and artist, she enjoyed gymnastics, baton, many mediums of art, and had a love of the outdoors.

Gay rejoiced in working with children. A talented dancer, she owned many dance studios, teaching tap, jazz, ballet, gymnastics, and baton. Her dedication and ability to instill confidence in young people was a gift.

Gay is survived by her ever-loving husband, Alan, her son, Bob, daughter, Tess, and devoted grandchildren, Ricky, Domanick, Cassie, Tanner, Connor, and Haylie, as well as great-grandchildren, Hudson and Lincoln, sister Vonda, and brother Boyd. She survived her brother Mark. Gay departed this world in the loving hands of her husband and family in her home.
