“ Dear brother,

It's been just 3 weeks since we received the shocking news that you were gone. A very sad day for all of us.

It was so nice to hear so many great stories about you and how you were there for so many people. I think about how many people you have helped over the years. We were just talking about driving a stick shift car. I can remember you teaching me to drive one. You were so patient and never appeared to be nervous.

One of the last memories I have of you will be that you asked Tami to go buy me a bundt cake from the bundt cake store and had her use the coupon for my birthday in August lol.

I'm sure you're with mom and dad now and I hope you guys are doing some gambling. Will miss you and regret that we never got to say good bye. Love you. Your sister, Jill “ Warren always made me laugh. I'll never forget the night when we went to see "Rocky Horror Picture Show" He took all the props and showed us, he "was one of THEM !!!" Warren never admitted how many times he had gone! Always a surprise that Warren. (Okay, it wasn't my first time either!) Rest in Peace, Cousin.
