“ My family has so many wonderful memories of Willie. My father, Fred Uriarte, and he had a friendship that lasted for decades. They met at the Fresno Elks Lodge and their mutual love of practical jokes and laughter made them fast friends. They kept in touch over the years long after the #439 on Kings Canyon had been razed. Thank you Willie for bringing your kindness and laughter in our family and into our hearts. I know my parents will greet you with a hug in Heaven. May God Bless and keep you.
